Subject: Speech contest

Hi Judy,

Have you come back from your trip to Tokyo yet? The weather report said that there was no rain last week in Tokyo, so I'm sure you really enjoyed sightseeing there. This was your first visit to Japan. Were you able to make yourself understood in Japanese?

My sister Beth, living in Tokyo now, emailed me and said that you came to her apartment last Wednesday. I hear that you and she went to see Tokyo Skytree. How was it? What did you do other than that? Actually, I really want to hear about your trip. Do you have some free time this weekend? Can I visit you?

By the way, I wanted to ask you about the speech contest both of us are supposed to take part in. The theme for the contest this time is "My Dream." Have you decided what to speak about? I'm thinking of speaking about my dream to become a high school teacher and I've made a draft of it. I'd like you to read it when I see you this weekend.

Your friend,
Stanley
